Both Harvard and Vale Scored On-Crimson Beats Bowdoln, 17 to 6, and the Blue Downs Tufts, 34 to 6-Quakers

Dispose of Franklin and Marshall. Two of the big college elevens were scored on vesterday. Harvard beat Bowdoin 17 but the latter crossed the Crimsons goal line by a long run. Yale downed Tufts, 34 to 6, Tufts' touchdown resulting from a quarter back kick. Neither of these scores in themselves indicate any particular weakness in the Harvard or Yale defence. Princeton played her first game, beating Swarthmore 18 to 0, the Tigers displaying uneven play. The University of Pennsylvana won from Franklin and Marshall, 16 to 0. Last year Tufts scored on Yale, the score being Harvard beat Bowdoin a year ago 12 to 0. Princeton and Swarthmore did not play last fall, while Pennsylvania beat Frank-lin and Marshall 6 to 0 in 1901. Cornell beat Rochester 31 to 0 yes'erday and 50 to 0 :

CAMBRIDGE, Oct. 1 The Bowdoin College team scored on Harvard on Soldiers' Field this afternoot, but was finally defeated, 17 to 6. Bowdoin was the first to score, and she made her points on one of the longest runs ever made on Soldiers' Field. Harvard had rushed the ball down to Bowdoin's 5-yard line, and Marshall gave Graydon the ball to go over for a touchdown. The leather was slippery and the Harvard tull back fumbled. The ball rolled out from the scrimmage. Porter of Bowdoin gathered it in and started down the field. The Harvard men started after him, but several of the Bowdoin men formed interference, and the Crimson players were unable to catch the runner. Porter carried the ball to-day, especially in the line. The backs were slow in starting, and fumbled badly. Only once on a kiekoff did Harvard have good interference, and then the runner did not follow it. Rowdoin had a good have on a kickoff did Harvard have erence, and then the runner did it. Bowdoin had a good heavy he men "charged well. Marshall best game for Harvard. NEW HAVEN, Conn., Oct. 1.—The Vale team had a big surprise this afternoon, when Tutts College scored against it. The final score was 34 to 6 in Vale's favor. The Tufts team fought to the very last, conceding not an inch to Vale. Tufts found a stone wall for her line plays. When the Vale backs hit the Tufts line they found a hole big enough for an ice wagon. Tufts on occasion held Vale in a manner that may give the Vale c scokes something to think about, with all Vale's 190 and 200-pounders.

For Yale Shevlin and Ward were the stars. The feature of Shavlin's work was his splendid running, he scoring Vale's last touch-down after a seventy-five vard run around Tufts' left end. Ward as a half back was invincible. Neal of last year's freshman team at left end was speedy and did not let a tackle get by him. Metcalf did some good work in the tackling line. Tufts' score was well made. It was her ball on Yale's 22-yard line and her quarter back tried a kick. The ball fell on the 10-yard line and rolled to the five. Capt Chadwick, misunderstanding the late walls to the half.

PRINCETON, 18; SWARTHMORE, 0.

PRINCETON, Oct 1—The Tigers opened the season here this afternoon by defeating the Swarthmore College eleven, is to 0. The Pennsylvanians were big and husky and they put up a stronger argument than the local players expected. Six points were all the Tigers were able to knock out in the first half of 20 minutes, and they were lucky to get them. Swarthmore's full back Sinclair, fumbled on his 20-yard line and Waller got the ball for Princeton. Then the, Tigers, by the hardest kind of plunging, carried the leather to the 2-yard line, where McClave was sent over for a touch down. Dewitt kicked the goal. In the second half the Orange and Black sent out several substitutes and they worked together better than the old men. One of the substitutes, Moore, from Exeter, showed up in promising form. He made both touchdowns in the second period. On the defensive the Tigers did fairly well. Princeton's ends were impregnable and the centre trie stood the battering well, but the visitors backs managed to get past the tackles frequently. Princeton's attack was weak, although individually the men went in hard The interference was ragged and Princeton bad to depend almost entirety on quick line plunges.

PENNSYLVANIA, 16: FEANKLIN AND MARSHALL, 0

PHILADKLPHIA, Oct. 1.—Pennsylvania today defeated Franklin and Marshall, 16 to 0 on a sloppy field. It was not the kind of a day for large scores nor was it suitable for showing off offensive work. Pennsylvania had difficulty in doing anything against their opponents in the first half and had it not been for Killheffer's muff of a puni not have scored. In the second half Pennsylvania showed a great improvement in CORNELL, 31: ROCHESTER, 0.

ITHACA, Oct. 1.— Despite the slippery condition of the field and the hard rain which made accurate playing difficult, Cornell to-day rolled up 31 points against the Rochester University team in two short haives. The Cornell men played a much better game than a week ago. The line was so strong that only twice did the visitors gain the necessary distance. Several of the substitutes, noticeably stace, James and Snider, did well. On the whole, the Cornell coaches were pleased with the showing.

BEDWN, 0. VERMONT, 0.

Instead of the scheduled game with the Brooklyn Polytechnic Institute yesterday afternoon Columbia played a practice game with the Horace Mann School team on South Field. After defeating the youngsters by a score of 20 to 0 the 'Varsity played a scrub game, adding two more touchdowns to the day's record. Shaw, Bruce, Whitwell, Townsend and Fisher of the old men did not take part in the game, and the score under the circumstances in ten-minute halves was considered good. Huntington, a new candidate for full back, demonstrated considerable ability by long runs. Capt. Weekes confined his play to line bucking and made persistent gains.

TEINITY PLAYER INJURED INTERNALIT.

Capt. Tallman of Trinity's eleven was knocked unconscious yesterday afternoon and hurt internally, how seriously, a doctor at columbia Oval was not able to say. Coach Pulvermacher, who had gone in to play full back on the scrubs, while tearing through the line, struck the captain in the pit of the stomach. Snyman, a new man, played a good game at tackle. His father was Gen. Snyman of the Boer Army, and he himself was an aide to De Wet throughout the war.

In the first practice game vesterday with the Webb Academy team the New York University eleven won by a score of 6 to 0. The halves were only ten minutes each, as the Webb Academy team did not arrive until 5 o'clock. It is rumored that E. F. Rorke. O'l, quarter back on the team for two years and ex-captain, will soon return to the university for special work. As he was in N. Y. U. only two years, he will be eligible to play, and will greatly strengthen the team. LAUREATE, 6. WILLIAMS, 0.

John A. Drake's Alabarch Wins the Fort Hamilton Stakes at Big Odds-Blues

There was another farcical steeplechase was a handicap at about two miles and a haif, with only four starters. For some unknown reason Joseph E. Widener's Miss Mitchell opened favorite at twos, but receded to 4 to 1. while the wise money went on Thomas W. Lawson's Ferocious, who was backed from 4 to 1 to 13 to 5, and Philma Paxton, who was sent to the post a 2 to 1 favorite. Hark For-ward was also reduced to 5 to 2. At the sec-ond jump going up the backstretch Hark Forward stumbled and threw G. Smith. The latter was not burt and watched the gelding ell set the pace, but at the jump opposite ton tumbled over him. That left Miss Mitchell to go it alone, but G. Smith then hustled after Hark Forward, mounted him and re-

TURF GOSSIP AT THE TRACK. John A. Drake Fools the Bookmakers

and Wins $40,000 on Alabarch. John A. Drake worked a clever trick on the layers at Gravesend yesterday. Usually the direction of the Drake money can be located by the operations in the ring of the chicago turfman's colored betting com-missioner. "Senator Bell." So when Bell rushed into the ring and began to place wagers on Rossignol to win the Fort Hamilton Stakes the word was passed around that Drake would not play his gelding Alabarch, who was entered in the same race. Accordingly, the price against Alabarch began to rise until 12 to 1 was the prevailing quotation on a majority of the slates. Then Drake and several other commissioners appeared and, rushing from book to book, they got down as much money as the layers would take on Alabarch. The horses were at the post and the odds fell rapidly until, just as the cry "They're off!" rang through the big pavilion, 6 to 1 was the best to be found. Alabarch won by half a length, and Drake, it is said, took about $40,000 out of the ring. The trick has been often played by "Pittsburg Phil" with success, but, nobody expected Drake to follow suit. His friends said, however, that the Chicago turfman was compelled to adopt these methods for the reason that the layers nowadays are inlined to quote small prices against all of his horses.

In the same race there was a great how! from those who placed wagers on L. V. Bell's G. Whittier at 4 to 1. The colt, according to the programme, was scheduled to carry 100 pounds, but, according to the conditions of the stake, his real impost was 12). When the betting had been going on for fifteen minutes with the understanding that 103 was the weight, the error was rectified. Immediately there was a demand that all bets should be declared off, but the Arbitration Committee of the Metropolitan Turf Asso siation, three bookmakers, decided that all bets should stand, a ruling that caused no end of grumbling and rauch ill feeling. The Fort Hamilton Stakes were run for the first time last year, and were won by W. B. Walters's Cervera, who was killed on Brooklyn Handicap Day at Gravesend this year. The stake yesterday was the from the Messrs. Morris the brood mare L. Intriguante, by Hawkstone-Conspiracy, bred to Filigrane, at a figure not made public. Frank Farrell's, horses, with the exception of his yearlings, will be sold at Morris Park on Oct 11.

Fred Littlefield has selected twelve yearlings from J. B. Haggin's stable and they will race in his name next year.

Lyne rode two winners, Alnbarch and Zoroater, vesterday. Martin rode a winner and a third. R on a majority of the slates. Then Drake and several other commissioners appeared
